Peggy has been designing jewelry that has been a Hollywood favorite for over six years. Her work has been on TV's "Medium", "Grey's Anatomy," and much more, plus featured in magazines such as Oprah, Lucky and teenVogue.

Peggy's designs are deceptively simple, featuring artisan craftsmanship and a sleekly modern, sophisticated, yet totally feminine sensibility. Color, contrast and texture are her signature style.

Peggy Li Creations were featured in the film "Superbad" in 2007 and has already been tapped for the 2008 television season, returning to show "Medium" and appearing on "Big Shots" and "Without a Trace."

Peggy will continue to bring her designs to local Bay Area art shows throughout 2008. Her jewelry is carried in local boutiques such as Sunhee Moon, Les Deux Copines and internationally at Juicy Rock, Japan.

Among other things, Peggy wants to be a screenwriter, entomologist and pastry chef when she grows up. She's currently living in San Francisco.
